WHAT CATARRH IS

It is said that every third person is troubled with catarrh in some form. Science has shown that nasal catarrh indicates a weakened condition of the body; that the secretions of the mucous membranes are quickly affected, and local treatments in the form of nuffs and vapors, do little if any good. To correct catarrh you should treat ts cause by enriching your blood and mproving your general condition with he oil-food in Scott's Emulsion which a medicinal-food and a building-tonic, ee from alcohol or harmful drugs. Scott's Emulsion is not a patent edicine but a concentrated medicinalood, prescribed by the best phyicians for forty years.
